

Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH

An established regional expertise across the globe, a high degree of technical and professional know-how and proven management skills – these factors are the backbone of the comprehensive range of services offered by the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH in over 130 countries worldwide.

Working in international cooperation on behalf of the German government, GIZ and its partners have a successful track record of over 30 years as experts in global labour mobility. We promote the potential of global migration for sustainable development. GIZ aims at finding solutions that bring benefits to all stakeholders: employers, skilled professionals, their countries of origin as well as their new host country.

MAKE IT IN HAMBURG!

..... The Hanseatic City of Hamburg has long attracted people from all continents with the prospect of work and a good life. In fact, the city relies ever more strongly on foreign skilled labour in many economic sectors, giving international professionals the chance to develop and advance their careers.

“Make it in Hamburg!” brings both partners together. We support skilled professionals and their families when starting out in Hamburg, as well as companies seeking qualified staff from abroad. Our services complement existing initiatives that seek to extend a broad ‘Willkommen!’ to all newcomers to the city.
